

“SING IT LOUD AND PROUD”

The positive atmosphere was tangible in Rawson Hall Wednesday evening when registered supporters came together to cast their votes at the first special general meeting of Norfolk Island People for Democracy (NIPD). It was also great to see so many people lodging proxies because they were unable to attend.

The evening was chaired by Lisa Richards and the following formal business outcomes were achieved:

- A Management Committee was elected comprising the 14 registered supporters who had nominated for a position on the Committee;
- Agreement that NIPD be incorporated as an Association under the Associations Incorporation Act 2005 (NI); and
- The draft Constitution distributed to registered supporters electronically as well as being available on www.norfolkschoice.com was agreed including an amendment to clause 6.1 to change the number of members on the Management Committee from 12 to 14.

Geoff Gardner gave an overview of the work undertaken by the interim management committee since May this year and of the work ahead for the Association; Robin Adams shared the news that Dianne Menghetti had offered her premises in Taylors Road known as ‘Just the Thing’ rent free as the Headquarters for NIPD - the resounding applause that followed this announcement demonstrated that the gesture was certainly appreciated and agreed; and finally Brett Sanderson spoke about the need for volunteers to assist the management committee with a broad range of tasks and invited willing helpers to register their names before leaving. A sincere thanks to the many who put their names down to help.

The meeting concluded with all singing ‘loud and proud’ the Pitcairn Anthem led by Shane McCoy.

Thanks all yorlyii for making the evening the positive success that it was.
